

Will of Jesse Burt (Putnam Co., GA Will Book B, p. 84)

Georgia, Putnam Co. ... I will that all my children have a good English education and the expenses be paid out of my estate... all my stock... household and kitchen furniture all my plantation implements and ... crop be sold, negroes to be hired out for two years... money to be divided as follows:

1/7 part minus $92.50 to go to son Henry H. Burt

1/7 part minus $540 to be placed in hands of James G. Burt to be kept at lawful interest so long as my daughter Harriet shall remain the wife of James Bigbee. If Harriet lives longer than James Bigbee, then after his death she shall have the money with interest. If James Bigbee lives longer, the money will go to her heirs. If she dies without issue, the money should be divided instead among my other children.

1/7 part minus $50.25 to son James G. Burt

1/7 part to son William W. Burt

1/7 part to my daughter Mary E. Burt

2/7 part to my little daughters Martha A. Burt and Nancy H. Burt to be kept in one common stock until one of them marries or reaches 21...

Executors were son James G. Burt and Hiram Reid. Signed 11 Aug 1826.
Witnesses: Richard Burt, Zacheus Burt

Below this was written:

James G. Burt:	to Jesse Burt [Sr.?]. To amt of sale of a horse	$57.25
Henry H. Burt:	to Jesse Burt % 1 Horse $62.50 1 bed and furniture	$30
		$92.50
Harriet [M?] Bigbee:	to Jesse Burt 1 negro woman named Vilet	$4 50
	1 gig and harness 1 bed and furniture	90
		5.40 [sic]

"The above are the accounts mentioned within."